

I. J. GELB visited Louvain for a conference on State and Temple Economy in the Ancient Near East. He opened the conference and gave a paper on "Household and Family in Early Mesopotamia." He also studied the tablets for his Source Book at the British Museum.